

Chris Wallace

Chris Wallace is the owner-brewer of Brasserie de la Motte Juillet, the micro-brewery he created in 2001 in Treban (03).

Before coming to France, Chris spent 25 years in sales and marketing in various companies in England. he has experienced as a salesman, in sales management and training and as business development manager with a major regional service company in East Anglia.